

Business/Public Robert Hackman

Mr. Robert Hackman, P.E. completed both Bachelor's and Master's Degrees of Science in Civil Engineering with over 40 years of practical engineering experience related to subsurface conditions and environmental issues. After retiring from management in a national consulting engineering firm, Mr. Hackman founded his own consulting firm to continue providing services to both public and private entities based on his extensive engineering background.